

Loss Prevention Scope of Services

CTSI, Inc. can provide complete loss prevention services for your workers' compensation program. The following describes, in general, the loss prevention services available through CTSI. Services include, but are not limited to, the following:

- ◆ Consultation services encompassing areas of workers' compensation, liability, property, health and safety, regulatory agencies, and process control
- ◆ Evaluate losses and make program recommendations to address frequency and severity of claims
- ◆ Provide updated information on rules, regulations and requirements
- ◆ Review and assist in developing policies and practices
- ◆ Perform loss prevention inspections and reports
- ◆ Develop specialized training programs
- ◆ Consult with supervisors regarding exposures and losses
- ◆ Develop and train loss prevention committees
- ◆ Maintain a reference and training aids library for use by district members
- ◆ Participate in meetings—disseminate information
- ◆ Workstation and ergonomic evaluations
- ◆ Accident investigation
- ◆ Regulation information
- ◆ Recordkeeping and compliance (OSHA, EPA, MSHA, etc.)
- ◆ Quarterly loss analysis reports
- ◆ Consult with claims adjusters and monitor loss trends